ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

Lime Street is one of the main streets of Liverpool from which radiates an excellent series of tramcars to all parts of the city. In Lime Street is found the celebrated St. George's Hall, which contains the Liverpool Assizes, finished in 1854 at a total cost of £40,000. It is more than 400 feet in length and possesses a noble colonnade supported by fifteen columns of 50 feet in height.

Printed in England.
